- Midterm Exam
- HPO Night Out
- Reminder to Check ALMA
- Hawks2Be Advent Festival

Midterm exams are scheduled for December 17-20. Exam days will be from 8:45-1:35 Monday through Wednesday. Lunch will be served Monday through Wednesday. The Thursday exam period is from 8:45 to 10:30 with announcements and dismissal after. The Thursday 10:50-12:20 exam is a scheduled make up exam period for students who miss an exam due to illness.

All classes are in session during this week whether or not students will be taking an exam. Elective courses will be utilizing this time for project/performance-based assessments. All students are expected to attend their scheduled classes and study halls. If a student misses any class period it will be counted as an absence. If a student comes late or leaves early from a day school policy must still be followed requiring a note for the office. Students who must arrive early or stay later due to buses/transportation may report to the gymnasium for supervision.

Students will not be excused early for travel; please see page 60 of the student handbook regarding this policy. Parents are asked not to schedule routine appointments during the exam time.

REMINDER TO CHECK ALMA

Parents are reminded to check Alma weekly to follow student progress. This is an excellent way to see whether a student may be in need of extra help and allow for early intervention. Please be aware, however, that checking grades too often may cause extra stress and anxiety for both students and parents. A weekly check is a good indicator of your student's current status.

Please be sure to check with your student about concerns you may have and then email teachers for clarification if necessary.

If you do not yet have access to Alma, please check your email (possibly the spam folder). Instructions were sent to parents new to the system earlier this school year. If you did not receive that email or no longer have it, please email Mr. Kevin Petrella at kevin.petrella@bishophartley.org. He will send the instructions.

HAWKS2BE ADVENT FESTIVAL

All students in grades 4 - 8 are invited to the Bishop Hartley Hawks2B Advent Festival on Thursday, December 13th from 6:30 - 9:30 pm in the Bishop Hartley Cafeteria. The event includes our annual Christmas choir concert. Join us for a wonderful evening! Please spread the word to those you know who may be interested!

Look for the next Herald on Thursday, December 13!
